

State Ethics Commission of Georgia

ADVISORY OPINION NO. 1987-07
March 2, 1987

SUBJECT: CONTRIBUTIONS BY CORPORATIONS

ADVISORY OPINION

A political action group or other “person” as defined in O.C.G.A. § 21-5-3(14) is not prohibited by the Ethics in Government Act from giving funds to a second political action group or other “person”.

Except as to persons acting on behalf of a public utility corporation as provided in O.C.G.A § 21-5-30(f), a corporation is not prohibited by the Ethics in Government Act from giving contributions directly to a candidate, a political action committee or to another person.
